

ArtsConnection

JOB POSTING: Dance Teaching Artist

---

NYC arts education nonprofit organization serving over 100 public school communities annually seeks Dance Teaching Artists with experience teaching general populations of Kg-12 grade (especially upper elementary) NYC public school students and teachers, for part-time, seasonal work, in the following styles:

- Creative movement / improvisation / dance composition

Successful candidates will possess the following qualities:

- Familiarity/experience with methods of facilitating inquiry-based arts learning;
- Experience teaching general populations of public school students during the school day;
- Ability to communicate well with both teachers and students;
- Familiarity with NYC public school curriculum and environment;
- Openness to regular dialog about teaching methods, practice;
- Ability to write lesson plans and describe your residency goals, daily objectives, activities;
- Willingness to teach in any of the five boroughs.

Please email your:

- teaching resume, with
- statement of educational philosophy,
- brief description of a 10-day dance residency you have taught and
- teaching schedule where you may be observed to:
JobQuery@artsconnection.org
with the subject line: “Dance Teaching Artist Position”.

No calls, please.